

noravant™ timber

noravant is the first PVC-free resilient flooring to combine high performance, bold design flexibility, and enhanced sustainability—without compromise. Engineered to push boundaries, it redefines what's possible in rubber flooring.

noravant timber is tough like oak. Calm like nature. It's high performance with exceptional protection—built to last, designed to soothe. Ten wood-inspired colors. Soft tones. It's rubber, reimagined with woodgrain beauty.
